

Please reject this petition. One reason why the we successfully police the HAM bands is the work and dedication all put in to attain priveledges. Continued watering down of the test requirements combined with this request continue to weaken the one strength we have enjoyed for many years - dedicated, trained hobbyist with a desire to advance the state of the art. I ask you to please do not approve this petition.